GEORG'S DIFFICULTIES WITH A RADIO (1943)

From: STOCKHOLM

To: MOSCOW

No: 592

20 Feb. 43

GEORG^[i] could not work at the MUSIC^[ii] as, owing to overloading of the current, the fuses in the house keep blowing. He received you on 14th February and 17th February on strength 4. We shall take steps to ensure that GEORG looks for a cottage in the country just outside the town. If the same thing goes on happening with the MUSIC which is being got ready for use again and in the new location as well (it works well in our place under the roof and he was instructed in its use at his home), we shall have to hand over the "JACK No. 2 [DZHEK No. 2]"^[iii] to him^[a], but this is provided we get the rectifier by the next post. Please confirm.^[b]

Notes: [a] Inserted by translator.

[b] The address, signature and internal serial number have been omitted.
